

Centre culturel Prabbeli

Since 29 April 2004, the renovated facilities of the former Gruber brewery contain an exhibition hall, a cinema, offices, a pub and a restaurant. The artistic pyramid-like roofing of the restaurant in the former inner courtyard of the brewery was not the only reason to call the centre "Prabbeli" (lux. for "umbrella").

By merging the activities of the cultural centre and the "Coopérations" a new type of structure was created: a sheltered workshop where disabled people and the long-term unemployed can find work, training and cultural activities. This workshop developed into an important service provider in the field of tourism and culture in the interest of the entire region.
